

Management and care of trees on site is slowly emerging as a point of concern for project planning. How do we conserve the trees or move them without damage to the tree or the site work flow? Can fatal accidents due to falling branches and trees be avoided? Join us and find out!

Planning & Management of Trees

- Date 8 April 2011
Time 1:00 - 5:00 pm
Venue HortPark Fruit Room
HortPark, 33 Hyderabad Road,
Singapore 119578
- Topics Key issues | Role of an Arborist | Kinds of 'Tree Works'
Trees and Building & Construction Industry
Practical sessions on TreeCare+
- Attire Please do come comfortably dressed as there will be hands-on sessions in the park itself.
- RSVP seminars@prince.com.sg

For this event, we have flown up our Australian consultant partner Mr Daniel Oaten. Daniel is a world-renowned Master Arborist who has spoken at numerous events around the globe and is recognized as an authority on issues regarding trees. Together with our in-house certified team of arborists, we intend to take you on a hands on journey to find-out just what trees are all about.